DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Applicant's response has overcome the objection to claims 1-13, 15-28 and 31-32.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The 112 rejection of claims 1-13, and 15-28 has been withdrawn. In addition, examiner notes that the B, M and w preamble synchronization patterns, shown in figs. 4-6, as "00010111", "00011101" and "11100100", respectively.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 14 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ohmori, US Patent No. 6,647,502 in view of Berens et al US patent no. 6,973,148.

As per claim 14, Ohmori discloses a method and apparatus fig. 1, comprising storing data in a FIFO 3 processing the data from FIFO 3 in a logic block 4 using a clock see output of controller 7, wherein the frequency "speed" of the clock is adjusted according to the amount of data "the number of words" stored in the FIFO 3 see col. 3, line 58-col. 4, line 2. However, Ohmori does not teach that the clock is generated using a programmable DDS. However, as evidenced by Berens et al, it is well known in the art to use a programmable DDS to generate a clock signal see col. 3, lines 3-15. Given that fact, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify Ohmori by generating the clock signal using a programmable DDS, because programmable DDS has the advantage of generating clock signal in which frequency error is controlled.

As per claim 29, see claim 14.

Drawings

5. The drawing was received on 3/29/07. The drawing is acceptable.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-13, 15-28, and 30-32 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14 and 29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
